NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER CELEBRATES PRESIDENTS DAY WEEKEND
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, THROUGH MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19

TD Bank underwrites FREE admission to the Center on Presidents Day, Monday, February 19

Philadelphia, PA (January 25, 2018) – Visitors can participate in a presidential festival while learning about the role of the president and what it takes to be commander in chief during the National Constitution Center’s Presidents Day Weekend celebration, Saturday, February 17, through Monday, February 19. Throughout the weekend, the Center will host a variety of entertaining, educational programs for the whole family, including presidential trivia where visitors can test their knowledge of America’s 45 presidents, craft stations, story corners, and more. Through other interactive programming, visitors considering their own path to the White House can experience all the ins and outs of the election process and a presidential campaign.

On Presidents Day Monday, visitors can attend a Kids Town Hall with Presidents George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Theodore Roosevelt who will answer visitors’ questions, such as: “How did George Washington set the standard for the role of president of the United States?” and “Did George Washington really have wooden teeth?” The presidential reenactors will be available to pose for pictures and sign autographs. At the conclusion of the Town Hall program, the “presidents” will judge the Center’s annual kids Presidential Costume Contest. Additional featured programs include the Presidential Portrait Challenge, which engages visitors with life-sized portraits of American presidents, and a Voting Booth Activity, where visitors can step inside an actual voting booth to cast a vote for their favorite president.

February also marks African American History Month. All month long, visitors can participate in interactive programs to learn about the lives of African-American leaders, the history behind the Emancipation Proclamation, and more. African American History Month is generously sponsored by TD Bank.

This year marks the fifth consecutive year that TD Bank has generously underwritten free admission to the Center on Presidents Day and sponsored African American History Month.

Free admission on Presidents Day includes access to the National Constitution Center’s interactive main exhibit, the signature multimedia, theatrical performance of Freedom Rising presented in the Sidney Kimmel Theater, and the iconic Signers’ Hall.

Visitors also have access to the Center’s feature exhibits, including American Treasures: Documenting the Nation’s Founding, an intimate look at the rarest early drafts of the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights, and Constituting Liberty: From the Declaration to the Bill of Rights, highlighting the three most important documents in American history.

Special Programs for Presidents Day: Monday, February 19

Presidential Costume Contest

9:30 a.m. – 12 p.m., Registration in Main Lobby

Children are encouraged to come to the National Constitution Center dressed as a U.S. president or first lady to enter the Center's Presidential Costume Contest. Children ages 12 and under are eligible to participate. The most original costume, as judged by a panel of presidential reenactors, will be awarded a family membership, valued at $95. Winners will be selected during the 12 p.m. Kids Town Hall program.

History's Heroes: Story Corner

9:30 a.m. – 3 p.m., Main Lobby

At the National Constitution Center's Story Corner, museum staff will engage the youngest visitors with fascinating tales about presidents and African-American heroes.

Voting Booth Activity

9:30 a.m. – 3 p.m., Main Lobby

Visitors will have the opportunity to step inside an actual voting booth to learn about the election process and cast their vote for their favorite historic president. This activity is presented in partnership with the Philadelphia City Commissioner's Office.

Presidential Portrait Challenge

9:30 a.m. – 3 p.m., Main Lobby

By using the life-sized portraits of American presidents on display in the Grand Hall Lobby, visitors can participate in hands-on activities that explore the similarities and differences between America's commanders in chief.

Kids Town Hall: Meet the Presidents

12 p.m., F.M. Kirby Auditorium

Visitors can participate in a special Kids Town Hall with some very famous guests – Presidents George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, and Theodore Roosevelt. The presidents will be available for photo opportunities and to sign autographs before and after the program.

Weekend Long Programming: Saturday, February 17, through Monday, February 19

Arts and Crafts Activity Tables

9:30 a.m. – 3 p.m., Main Lobby
